

Policy and Procedure for the Election of Regional Committee / Te Kāhui Oranga ō Nuku Members

Purpose and Scope

The purpose of this policy is to confirm the procedures and requirements involved in the election of committee members to Regional Committees/Te Kāhui Oranga ō Nuku (formerly The New Zealand Committee). The policy details who is eligible to be elected as a member of a Regional Committee/ Te Kāhui Oranga ō Nuku and also outlines the processes for conducting elections for Regional Committees/ Te Kāhui Oranga ō Nuku. This policy applies to Regional Committee/ Te Kāhui Oranga ō Nuku, Fellows who are eligible to stand for election to Regional Committees/ Te Kāhui Oranga ō Nuku and College staff who are responsible for managing the election process. The documents entitled: Terms of Reference for Regional Committees and Terms of Reference for Te Kāhui Oranga ō Nuku are to be read in conjunction with this policy.

1. Policy

The objectives of this policy are to ensure that Regional Committee/ Te Kāhui Oranga ō Nuku elections conducted by the Royal Australian and New Zealand College of Obstetricians and Gynaecologists (RANZCOG) are open and transparent, comprehensive, and scrutinised appropriately.

2. Procedure

2.1 Eligibility Requirements

All Fellows who are financial and resident in the applicable region are eligible to stand for election to Regional Committees.

All Fellows who are financial and resident in New Zealand are eligible to stand for election to Te Kāhui Oranga ō Nuku.

All nominees, proposers and seconders must be resident in the applicable region and be financial Fellows of the College at the time of a nomination being submitted. For election purposes, to be deemed a financial Fellow the member will have no outstanding monies owing to the College, including the annual subscription fee for the relevant financial period. Where a nominee, proposer and/or seconder is not financial, the nomination form will be deemed invalid and shall not be accepted.

All nominees, proposers and seconders for the Provincial Fellow Representative position must be registered Provincial Fellows i.e. have formally made an application to the College to be recognised as a Provincial Fellow. In the event that a ballot is required, only registered Provincial Fellows in the applicable region may vote for the Provincial Fellow Representative.

2.2 Timetable for Elections

The election process will begin in June and end in August of the election year.

2.3 Returning Officer

The Company Secretary is the Returning Officer and has the authority to appoint College staff (Election Office) to conduct the elections.

2.4 Pre-Election Notification to Regional Committees

Prior to the official call for nominations, the Election Office is to liaise with the Manager, Regional Offices and each Regional Committee/ Te Kāhui Oranga ō Nuku Chair to confirm the number of elected positions to be available. As per the Terms of Reference for Regional Committees and the Terms of Reference for Te Kāhui Oranga ō Nuku, each outgoing committee has the authority to determine the appropriate number of elected positions needed to effectively run the committee.

2.5 Call for Nominations

A call for nominations is to be issued in mid-June. The call for nominations is to indicate the number of vacancies, the close of nominations date and time and the provisions for conducting the elections.

2.6 Incomplete Nomination forms

If any part of the nomination form is not completed or submitted properly or the nominee, proposer or seconder are not financial (refer above), then the nomination form will be deemed invalid and not accepted. The nominee will be advised of the irregularities via e-mail by the Election Office and will be offered the chance to resubmit their completed nomination form within the designated timeframe.

2.7 Close of Call for Nominations

The promoted date and time for the close of the Call for Nominations will be strictly adhered to. Late nominations, no matter what the reasons are, will not be accepted. The closing date will be one month after the Call for Nominations.

2.8 Acknowledgement of nominations

All accepted nominations will be acknowledged by e-mail within two business days of receipt.

2.9 Withdrawal of Nominations

Nominees may withdraw their nominations at any time up to the close of nominations but may not do so after nominations have closed. All notices of withdrawals must be in writing via email to the Election Office and be signed by the nominee.

2.10 Promotion of Nominees

Nominees will be kept confidential until after the closing date and time for the submission of nominations.

2.11 Publicity

The College will not supply names and/or contact details nor distribute to Fellows any material for publicity purposes by candidates.

2.12 Voting

If the number of nominations exceeds the number of vacancies to be filled, the Election Office shall conduct an election by secure online ballot. Postal ballots will be sent to any Members who do not have an email address on file with the College.

The online ballot will state: the names and candidature statements of the nominees (reproduced verbatim and in alphabetical order); voting method – the candidate who receives the most votes will win the ballot; and the ballot closing date and time.

2.13 Counting of Votes

Each Fellow is entitled to cast one vote. The candidate with the most votes will win the ballot and will be elected.

Postal ballot received will be declared to be invalid by the Returning Officer if in the opinion of the Returning Officer:

- the outer envelope or the ballot paper contained within have not been lodged by a Fellow entitled to vote;
- the name of the Fellow on the outer envelope cannot be read;
- a Fellow entitled to vote has submitted more than one outer envelope; or
- a voting paper is marked in such a way that the intentions of the Fellow casting a vote are not clear.

2.14 Notification of Results

The Returning Officer will, as soon as practical after the results have been declared, advise the successful and unsuccessful candidates. The list of successful candidates for each region will be published in the next available issue of Collegiate, O&G Magazine and on the College's website.

2.15 Casual Vacancies

If a casual vacancy arises for any position during the term of the committee, a call for nominations for that position will be made. If, following a second call for nominations for any casual vacancy position no nominations have been received, the Election Office will liaise with the relevant Regional Committee regarding the position.

Te Kāhui Oranga ō Nuku /Regional Committee must make a recommendation to the RANZCOG Board regarding the status of the position until the next election of committee members; the relevant committee may elect to canvass the region for a suitable Fellow to fill this position or elect to keep the position vacant.

Any committee members appointed to fill a casual vacancy shall hold office only until the next election of committee members and shall be eligible for re-election in accordance with the Terms of Reference for Regional Committees and Terms of Reference for Te Kāhui Oranga ō Nuku and this policy.

The period of time served on a committee filling this vacancy shall not be counted as a period of office.

2.16 Retention of Records

All records pertaining to the election are to be retained by the Returning Officer for a period of one year from the nominated election date.

2.17 Invalidity

No election is to be invalid by reason of:

- any formal error or defect in any declaration or other instrument or in any publication made pursuant to these procedures or intended to be so made; or
- any such publication being out of time; or
- any delay in holding the election at the time appointed or in taking the poll; or
- any inadvertent failure to send to any eligible Fellow any notice or ballot documentation; or
- any defect of a merely formal nature.

2.18 Appeals

Where a candidate is aggrieved with a decision of the Returning Officer, they may seek a review of that decision in accordance with the RANZCOG Appeals Procedures.
