ARTHUR WILSON MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

The Arthur Wilson Memorial Scholarship was established in 1987 with funds from the Arthur Wilson Memorial Foundation. The Foundation had been created in 1951 after a public appeal was launched to perpetuate the memory of the late Arthur Wilson, an outstanding gynaecologist and obstetrician.

Conditions of Award

The purpose of the Arthur Wilson Memorial Scholarship is for research in any aspect of obstetrics and gynaecology and related disciplines. The research is to be conducted in Australia or New Zealand.

Eligibility

The Scholarship is open to graduates in medicine or science.

Tenure

The Scholarship is for a period of two years, conditional on a satisfactory progress report six months into the Scholarship.

Application

Applications are to be submitted using the RANZCOG Foundation Application Form (Research-Based), together with other information as specified on that form. The date for receipt of applications is 30 June.

Applications are assessed by the RANZCOG Research Grants Committee.

Administration of the Scholarship

The Scholarship is to be undertaken in a hospital, university department or research institute.

Time spent undertaking the Research Scholarship may be recognised for part of the pre-Fellowship training for the FRANZCOG, or towards the Continuing Professional Development program requirements of the College for Fellows.

Scholarship/Fellowship Funds

The annual scholarship/fellowship funds shall be $30,000.

Report on the Scholarship

A progress report is to be prepared six months into the project, including the research supervisor's assessment of the scholarship holder's work. This progress report will be assessed by the Research Grants Committee prior to confirmation of the second year of the Scholarship.

Following completion of the project, a full report is to be submitted to the RANZCOG Foundation by 31 January. This report will be reviewed by the Research Grants Committee.

The RANZCOG Foundation is to be acknowledged in any publication or thesis resulting from work undertaken during the tenure of the Scholarship by stating that the author was the recipient of the Arthur Wilson Memorial Scholarship for a particular period. A copy of any published article arising from research carried out under the Arthur Wilson Memorial Scholarship is to be submitted to the RANZCOG Foundation when available.

Article for O&G Magazine

This should be a lay overview of the project (200 words) stating why the project is an important area for study, what the project set out to achieve etc. It will be due 31 January in the year following completion of the project. The article will be published in O&G Magazine and may be used for other promotional uses by the Foundation.
