2. Policy

This policy applies to all people who will be recorded (i.e. a ‘recorded person’) whilst participating in any ‘RANZCOG assessment processes.’ All recordings will be taken to ensure the effective delivery of the specific RANZCOG assessment. The assessment/s will be carried out in accordance with the relevant RANZCOG applicant/candidate assessment guide, where applicable. All data will be retained for the minimum time to fulfil the RANZCOG purpose but no more than four (4) months from the concerned assessment in conjunction with the RANZCOG Retention and Disposal: Policy and Procedure. The recording will be solely for use by RANZCOG.

All recordings will be treated as confidential and held in compliance with this policy and the RANZCOG Privacy Policy. In the event of any inconsistency with the RANZCOG Privacy Policy (or any other RANZCOG policy), the provisions of this policy will prevail. No recording will be shared with any person outside of those members and staff of RANZCOG as permitted under this policy.

RANZCOG appreciates the importance of ensuring that all material supplied by members and others who have dealings with the College is treated in a manner that respects the rights of all individuals (including examiners and candidates) and which meets the requirements of all relevant privacy and related legislation. The College’s Privacy Policy may be accessed through the College website.

Accordingly, appropriate consent for the recording of all stations will be obtained from all participants involved in the conduct of examination stations (candidates, examiners, confederates, standardised patients and others identified).

All video footage will be destroyed/deleted from College files once the RANZCOG purpose is fulfilled or within four (4) months of the concerned assessment date, whichever is earlier.

Access to recordings of stations will not be available to trainees other than as required through the relevant legislation.

3. Purpose of recordings

The use of the recording is to assist in ensuring the effective delivery of RANZCOG assessments. The access to recordings is strictly limited to RANZCOG examiner/s and staff for the purposes of:

3.1 For clarification and report purposes

Recordings may be used by the College to evidence assessment proceedings in the event that there is a significant technical issue, unexpected incident or illness

Recordings may be used to record the assessment process in relation to accreditation assessments to enable accurate reporting.

3.2 For Verbal Feedback purposes

Assisting in providing verbal feedback for unsuccessful candidates of all RANZCOG Oral Examinations. Examiners providing such feedback may view the recording to refresh their memory or to collect further information to provide feedback as per the RANZCOG Examination Verbal Feedback Policy.

4. Permitted Use of Recordings

4.1 Use as a Quality Assurance and Continuous Improvement

Recordings have the potential to enable RANZCOG to improve future examinations and assessments, and accreditation processes. Recordings are also of use in enabling RANZCOG to audit the performance of assessors or any other individuals involved in the conduct of assessments. The College regards these activities as being in the best interests of all involved in assessments and will not, as a matter of course, seek further consent from recorded persons for the purposes of the use of recordings for audit and/or quality improvement processes. Any use for this purpose will be approved by the CEO (or their nominee) or in accordance with the guidelines approved for this purpose.

5. Non-permitted use of recordings

Access to or viewing of recordings will not be granted other than as approved in this policy and not where an individual or body is merely dissatisfied with the assessment outcome.

A Candidate cannot use a recording to support an application for Special Consideration or Reconsideration under the Exceptional Circumstance and Special Consideration Policy and Procedure or to support a Request for Reconsideration, Review or lodgement of an Appeal, or to dispute the decision of a Request for Review or an Appeal, under RANZCOG Regulation A2 Appeals Procedures.

6. Access

Access to the recordings will be subject to the following criteria:

Candidate: The candidate will not have access to the recording

Assessor: The assessor will have access to the recording where it is required for clarification of the assessment and providing feedback to a candidate. They will have access until the RANZCOG purpose is fulfilled but no more than four (4) months from the date of the concerned assessment.

RANZCOG Representatives: RANZCOG Representatives will have access to the recording where it is required for clarification of the assessment or reporting purposes or other purposes set out in this policy. They will have access until the RANZCOG purpose is fulfilled but no more than four (4) months from the date of the concerned assessment.

For all relevant purposes, where appropriate, and as much as reasonably practicable, the recording will be de-identified to protect the identity of those involved.

7. Consent

At the commencement of all assessment processes, all parties involved, Candidates, Assessors and any RANZCOG Representatives, will be required to provide consent to be recorded by completion of the relevant RANZCOG assessment consent form (Appendices A-C). This consent will confirm their understanding of the RANZCOG Recording Policy and their agreement to be recorded in accordance with the terms set out within this Form and related RANZCOG policies.

8. Retention of recordings

The Assessment recording/s will be retained for the period between the assessment taking place and the RANZCOG purpose being fulfilled but no more than four (4) months from the date of the concerned assessment taking place, as per the RANZCOG Retention and Disposal: Policy and Procedure. When this purpose has been met, the recording will be disposed of in accordance with the RANZCOG Retention and Disposal: Policy and Procedure.

Whilst the recordings are being held by RANZCOG, they will reside with the College Directorate business unit who had oversight of the specific assessment.

All recordings will be held in compliance with the RANZCOG Retention and Disposal: Policy and Procedure.
